

MARICIA NAGY

REEL CREATOR · FILMMAKER

Turning short-form content into cinematic visual stories.

SELECTED WORK / 2026

I’M MARICIA.

I’m Maricia Nagy, a 23-year-old filmmaker and reel creator with a background in cinematography and filmmaking.

I approach short-form content with a cinematographer’s eye — from concept and moodboarding to shot selection, lighting, camera operation, directing and editing.

What makes my work different is the way I treat a reel as more than just content. I look for the right frame, build the light around the subject, imagine the image before I shoot it, and shape every shot to serve a story.

Whether I’m working with natural light, creating a lighting setup from scratch, or shooting with a professional camera or a phone, my goal is always the same: to create visuals that feel intentional, cinematic and complete.

FILMMAKER’S EYE.

Short-form, approached with the discipline of cinematography.

FROM IDEA TO FINAL CUT

01 CONCEPT

Developing the visual direction and idea behind the reel.

02 MOODBOARD

Building the visual language, references, colors, lighting and atmosphere.

03 SHOT SELECTION

Choosing frames, angles and compositions that make the story visually interesting.

04 CAMERA & LIGHTING

Operating camera, designing lighting and creating the look of the scene.

05 DIRECTING

Working with people, movement and performance to make every shot feel natural and intentional.

06 EDITING & MUSIC

Turning individual shots into a story through pacing, rhythm, music selection and visual flow.

I don’t just shoot a reel. I build the visual story behind it.

SEE THE IMAGE BEFORE THE CAMERA.

I think like a cinematographer, even when I’m shooting a reel.

I look at the light before I look at the camera. I imagine how I want the scene to feel, then build the frame around that feeling.

Sometimes that means creating a lighting setup. Sometimes it means finding the right natural light and knowing exactly how to use it.

For me, cinematography is not limited by the equipment. It is about knowing how to see.

That mindset carries into my editing too — choosing the right shots, finding the right rhythm, selecting the right music and connecting everything into one complete visual story.

THE EQUIPMENT ADAPTS TO THE PROJECT — THE VISUAL APPROACH DOESN’T.

SHORT-FORM DOESN’T HAVE TO LOOK SHORT.

I bring cinematic thinking into short-form content — using composition, lighting, movement, rhythm and storytelling to create reels that feel like more than social content.

LET’S CREATE SOMETHING WORTH WATCHING.
